

GOLDEN SHOES/PUBLIC ART FACT HUNT

To find the answers, find the art! Either use the handy map of public art in Cambridge, or visit our web sites:

www.cambridgeartscouncil.org and www.cambridgepublichealth.org.

1. "Turnaround/Surround" is the name of the public art piece on the hill at Danehy Park. What picture do you see on the big rubber circle at the top of the hill? _____

2. How many brass footprints are there in the floor of "Drawn Water", the artwork at the Fresh Pond Water Treatment Facility? _____

3. There is a hotel depicted on the Davenport Street Mural (on the back of the Porter Square Shopping Center). What is the name of this hotel? _____

4. How many different bird species are shown on the bollards (granite posts) in Corporal Burns Park (Memorial Drive and Flagg Street)? _____

5. A front page of the Cambridge Chronicle is shown in the mural on the Green Street Garage (corner of Green and Pearl Streets). What is the price on this newspaper? _____

6. "Multicultural Manifestoes" is the artwork at the main intersection in Central Square. How many glass pillars (with brass cylinders at the top) can you count? _____

7. There is new artwork at the Area IV Youth Center (243 Harvard Street, near Essex Street). What is its main color? _____

8. George Washington and Benjamin Franklin appear on the Inman Square Firehouse mural. How many additional firefighters are shown with them? _____

9. Some of the ceramic pieces in the wall reliefs on the Miller's River residence (15 Lambert Street) were made by Cambridge school children. Which 4 schools made these contributions? 1. _____ 2. _____
3. _____ 4. _____

10. East Cambridge – 1852 is the title of the artwork at the corner of Thorndike and Second Streets. What color is the pair of pants hanging on the laundry line? _____

Complete both sides of this Art Hunt sheet and bring it to the Cambridge Public Health Department to claim a prize before June 30, 2003.

Cambridge Public Health Department, 119 Windsor Street. Cambridge
Open 8:30 AM - 5 PM Monday through Friday.

Tell us about yourself:

How old are you? _____

What neighborhood do you live or work in? _____

Do you have access to the Internet? _____

Do you already walk regularly?

____ Yes

____ No

Did you start walking because of this event? _____

____ Yes

____ No

Are you more likely to walk because of this event? _____

____ Yes

____ No

Would you be willing to be contacted this summer to be part of a focus group about walking?

____ Yes

____ No

How Did you hear about this event? _____

What do you think about Public Art in Cambridge?
